

The project's second user workshop was held on the 28th October, again at the Lichfield premises of Palletways. Potential user requirements were discussed in greater depth and a plan of action was drawn up for identifying and engaging relevant stakeholders within the Palletways organisation.